Copyright and Trademark Related Policy

We have gathered a very large assortment of photographs, writings etc. from many sources for our web site and promotional materials. We believe that such materials are in the Public Domain and or we have the necessary rights and or permissions to use such materials. However, we do not wish in any way to violate any Copyright and will take immediate action to remove anything that may in any way violate a Copyright.

If you believe that your work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, please provide us with the following information required under 17 U.S. C. § 512:

- (a) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed;
- (b) Identification of the copyright work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at the Site;
- (c) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit us to locate the material;
- (d) Information reasonably sufficient to permit us to contact the complaining party, including a name, address, telephone number and, if available, an email address at which the complaining party may be contacted;
- (e) A statement that the complaining party has a good-faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law; and
- (f) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
